

Southeast Region

Answer Key

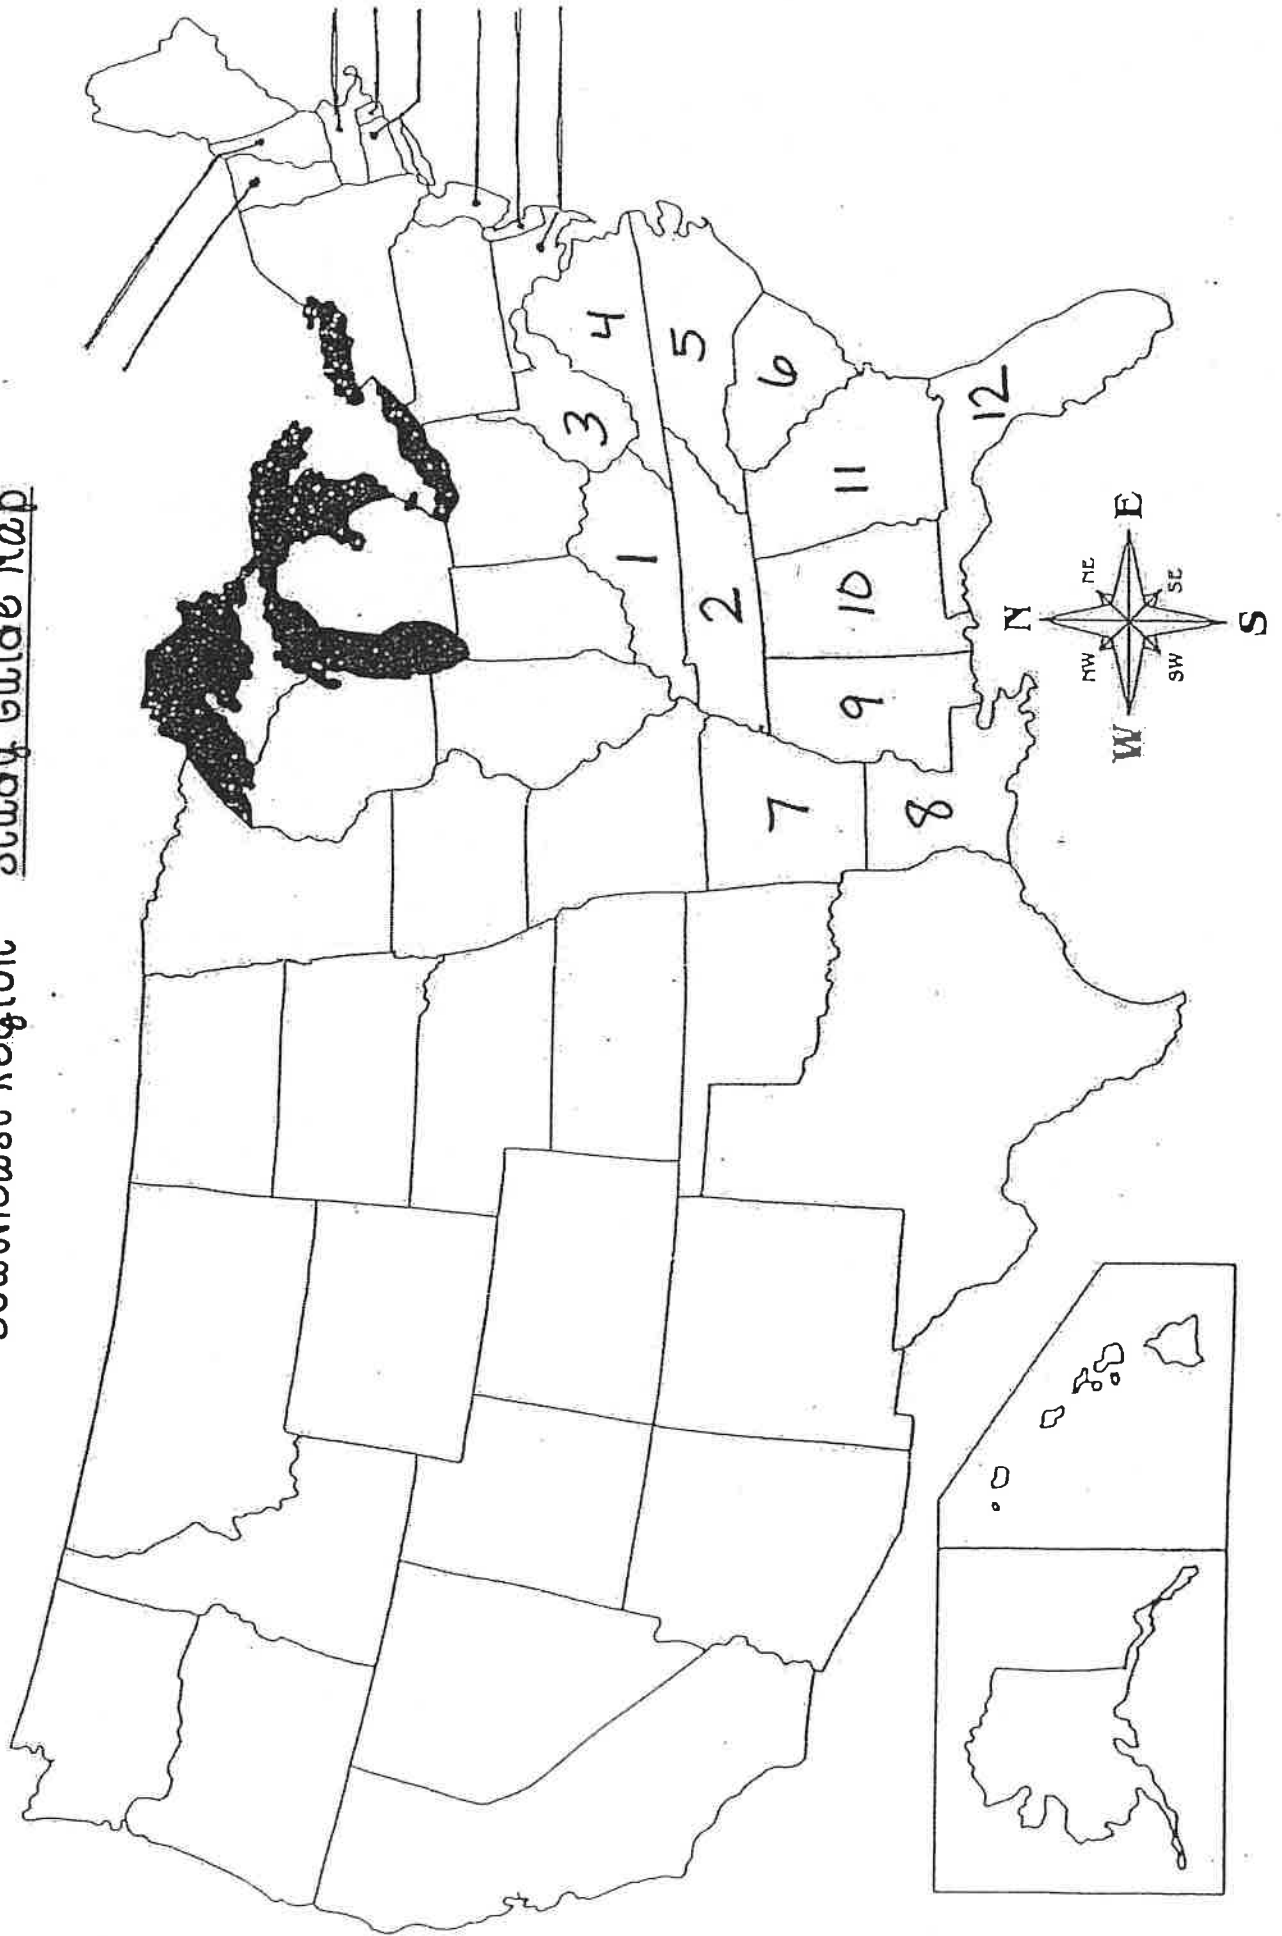

Location	State	Capital	Abbreviation
1	Kentucky	Frankfort	KY
2	Tennessee	Nashville	TN
3	West Virginia	Charleston	WV
4	Virginia	Richmond	VA
5	North Carolina	Raleigh	NC
6	South Carolina	Columbia	SC
7	Arkansas	Little Rock	AR
8	Louisiana	Baton Rouge	LA
9	Mississippi	Jackson	MS
10	Alabama	Montgomery	AL
11	Georgia	Atlanta	GA
12	Florida	Tallahassee	FL

Option A: Just location of state

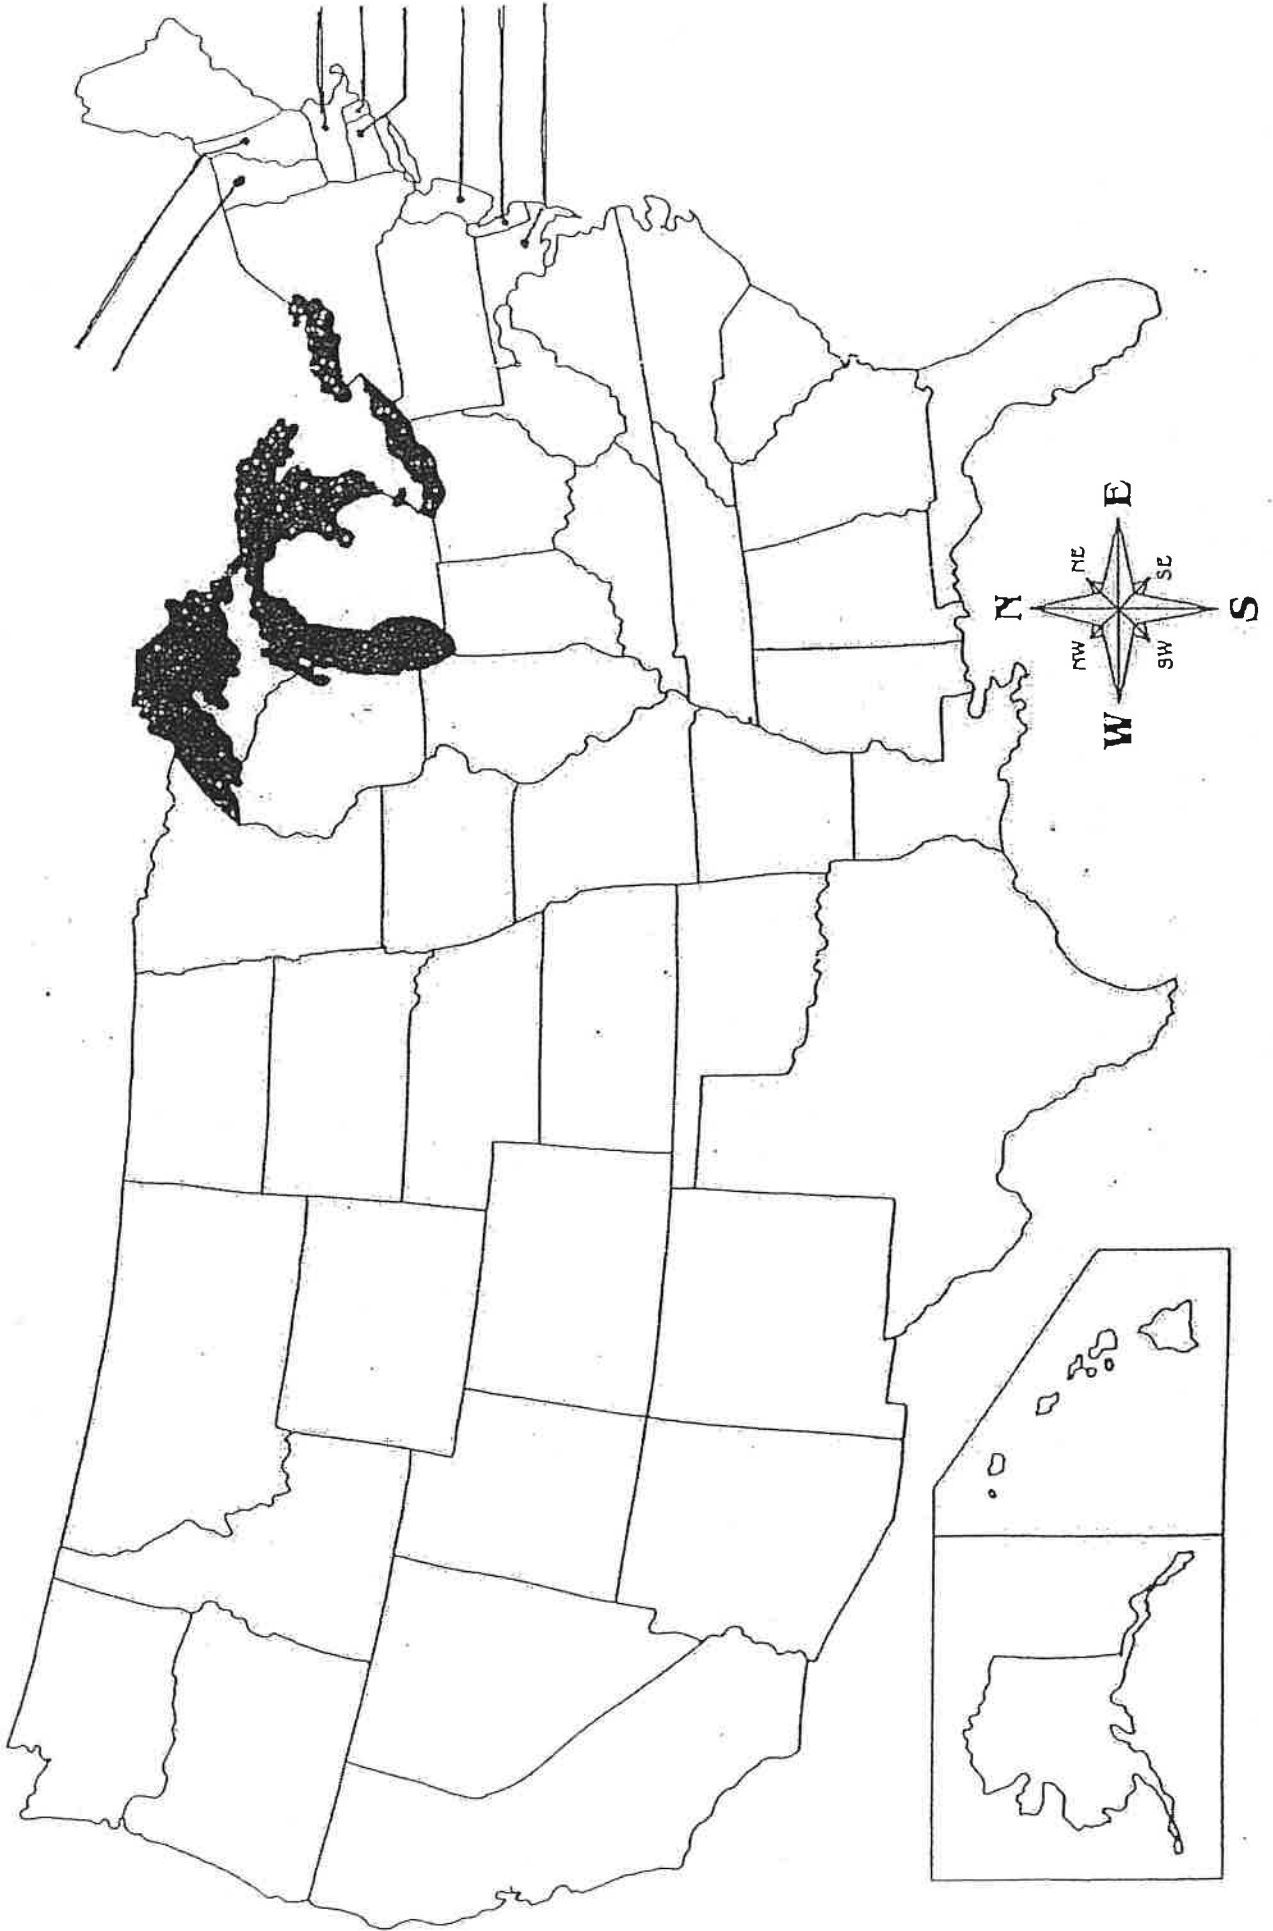

Option B: Location of state and its capital

Option C: Location of state, capital, and abbreviation

Southwest Region Study Guide Map

Blank Map to help you study

Southeast

West Virginia (WV)

Capital: Charleston

1863

Fun fact:

Forests cover nearly 75% of West Virginia

Virginia (VA)

Capital: Richmond

1788

Fun fact:

Jamestown was the first permanent English settlement in the United States

North Carolina (NC)

Capital: Raleigh

1789

Fun fact:

The University of North Carolina Chapel Hill is the oldest State University in America

South Carolina (SC)

Capital: Columbia

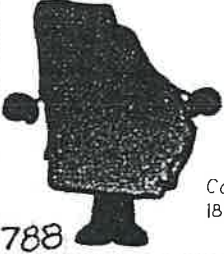

1788

Fun fact:

The first battle of the Civil War took place at Fort Sumter

Georgia (GA)

Capital: Atlanta

Fun fact:
Coca-Cola was invented in May 1866 by Dr. John S. Pemberton in Atlanta, Georgia.

1788

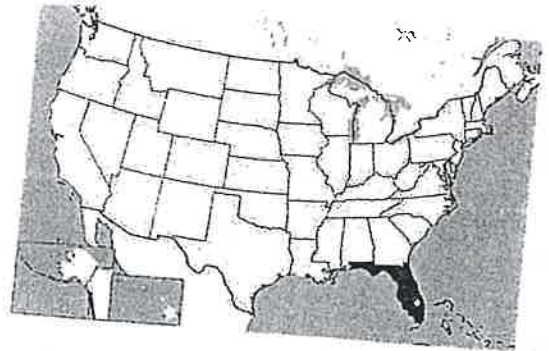

Florida (FL)

Capital: Tallahassee

Fun fact:
The St. John River is one of the few rivers that flow north instead of south.

1845

Kentucky (KY)

Capital: Frankfort

Fun fact:
The Kentucky Derby is the oldest continuously run horse race in the country.

1792

Tennessee (TN)

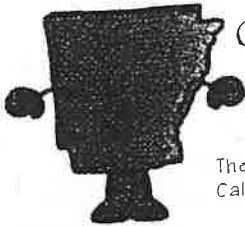

Capital: Nashville

Fun fact:
Tennessee has more than 3,800 documented caves.

1796

Arkansas (AR)

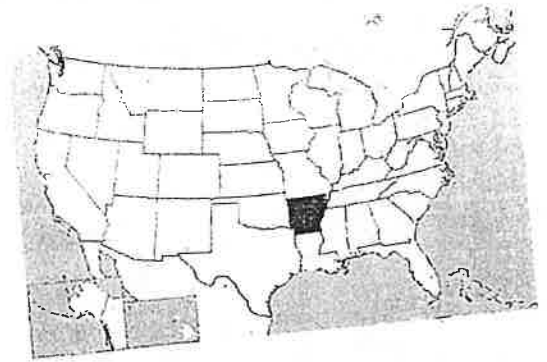

Capital: Little Rock

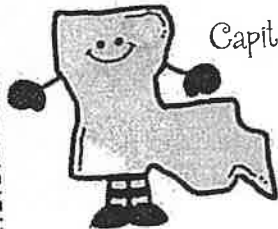

Fun fact:

The World's Championship Duck Calling Contest is held annually in Stuttgart.

1836

Louisiana (LA)

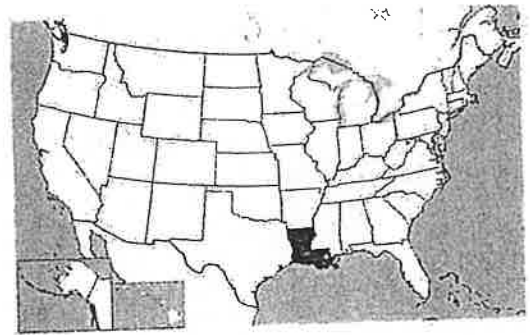

Capital: Baton Rouge

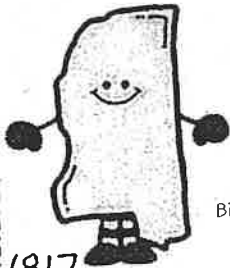

Fun fact:

Louisiana has the tallest state capital building in the United States: 450 feet tall.

1812

Mississippi (MS)

Capital: Jackson

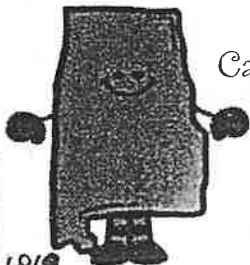

Fun fact:

Root beer was invented in Biloxi, in 1898 by Edward Adolf Barq, Sr

1817

Alabama (AL)

Capital: Montgomery

Fun fact:

The first electric trolley system was introduced in Montgomery in 1886

1819

